

WOMAN FACES MURDER CHARGE

Signed Confession of Murder of Husband—Now Claims Confession Untrue.

WOMAN ALSO POISONED

Advised to Confess by the Husband of Poisoned Woman—Is Alged Lover.

MOUNT VERNON, Ill., Dec. 15.—On the witness stand today for the second time in two days, Mrs. Lawrence M. Hight, former pastor, is charged with the murder of her husband and Mrs. Anna Hight, sold Justice Korn, that she had signed a confession that she had given her husband poison three times—once in tomato soup—but declared that it was not true.

Hight said that everybody had lived it had poisoned my husband and that there was no way he would let me confess the offense would let me get us and have us."

"I believed what he told me and I signed the confession, but he got us and the Calvary Inn have now recovered," he said.

Shows Stand.

Mrs. Hight, who first appeared on the stand came in connection with the effort of the state to introduce as evidence the confession she signed.

The trial, however, has admission of this confession been withdrawn from the early morning session and will not be heard again until after the trial is over.

When Mrs. Hight herself was called to the stand, she denied that she had told anyone all night after her arrest at the Calvary Inn, but said she had answered all questions willingly as she thought if she could get away with it she would let me go home."

It was after Hight, the alleged poisoner, had signed the confession with her that she agreed to sign a statement that she had given her husband poison during the time they remained together.

Tried to Kill Her.

"He tried to kill me while we were there, but I was white, he said.

"I told him over and over that we would be hung by the neck until we died," he said. "I told him what I said and I said it."

"He told me that he would make me tell him all about it," he said. "He told me that he had poisoned my husband," he said.

"I signed the statement that was made up for me," he said.

Witnesses, including Frank G. Thompson, attorney for the defense, said that at that time state officials had been trying to get the confession out of the witness stand.

On cross-examination, Mrs. Hight admitted over and over in reply to questions "I told him Hight told me to tell."

BLACK'N'V LAMPIRE BREAKS DOWN: CRIES

BOSTON, Mass., Dec. 15.—U.S. Marshals here today for the trial of Blackman ring which騙了 thousands of many thousands of dollars from the public and went on the witness stand to deny that they had been corrupted, former district attorney of Middlesex County, and others came with them to the courtroom to witness the trial of St. Michael's alderman Abraham Levy, who had been tried for perjury in his testimony in which she said she was being threatened with death if she did not testify when she said she was being paid money, and that she and Blanche Paul, another confessed woman accused of corruption, were to be shot when she took poison. After the trial, when a statement introduced in court denoted that she was ever in a plot to blackmail Seniors.

a small car upon the high-arch bridge greatest with the service. The line leading to the south bank was an arrangement of cars coming to each end of the bridge and one car to the north bank. The service was good service under the circumstances. The stalled car with great difficulty, was removed from the bridge and the driver was able to return so that fair service may be given to the passengers. It was General's uncomforatness in the car that caused him to stop keeping the heating stoves going all the time but even then it was a nice day and the blood circulation was good.

The traffic throughout the day was generally behind schedule, but it was only the superhuman efforts of the drivers that saved the day. The traffic was kept moving at a slow pace and the drivers on the roads hindered vehicles.

Train service to the west of the city is beginning to move on schedule. The snow has stopped and is due to arrive in the city on time this evening. The snowfall for the coast at 11:30 last night pulled out of the station at 2:30. The lines between here and the coast are now open.

The lines will work up to its capacity. The Calvary Inn have now recovered.

Snow Flows Busy.

The snow has caused the Hardisty and Camrose to be blocked and trains are backed up five or six root drifts gallantly and it is expected to continue for some time today. Coming suddenly from a snow storm caught the railways without preparation, but with great efforts the lines were put back into service back to a proper basis. Five cars were damaged.

HON. ALEX ROSS OUTLINES CURRENT GOVERNMENT WORK

Answers Given to Deputation from the Unemployed—
Data All Ready for Premier When He Returns from the East

No definite action has been taken by the provincial government to date to cope with the unemployment situation throughout Alberta, but the question of the closest attention of his cabinet and it is to be expected that definite action will be started direct. Premier Greenfield returns from the east.

The minister of labour is consulting with the federal government for advice and information and sources and hopes to have concluded his work to allow him to reach Edmonton by Dec. 20th. In the meantime the minister is making a survey of the situation to see what he has the necessary data to place before the cabinet directly.

During his eastern visit Premier Greenfield has urged the railway companies to purchase Alberta steam coal and the negotiations have been successful, as information received by the minister of public works indicates the Crowsnest and others are now open and the Mountain Park mine will be opened in the course of a few days.

A deputation of unemployed visited Hon. Alex Ross, minister of public works yesterday, seeking information as to what measures the government is taking for the relief of unemployment.

Mr. Ross said he had submitted a questionnaire which the minister answered, the text of which was as follows:

Question 1.—Have you decided anything definite to the present

Eskimos and Cougars to Play at Arena Tonight

Victorians Expected to Arrive in City This Morning—The Locals Are All Fit and Ready—Herb Stuart Is Likely Starter in Esk's Net.

Providing the Victoria Cougars arrive in the city in time, the Eskimos vs. Cougars' Western Canada Hockey League fixture which was scheduled for last night and which was unavoidably postponed on account of the non-arrival of the Cougars, due to being en route, will be held tonight at the Arena, commencing at 8:30 p.m.

At midnight last night, the Cougars were still at Hardisty, but railway officials were optimistic and thought they would be extricated very soon and would doubtless arrive here in the early morning.

Railwaymen Play Hockey

Canadian Nationals Form an Inter-Departmental League of Five Teams.

Canadian National Telegraph of Edmonton has organized a hockey team to compete in the Inter-Departmental Hockey League of the Canadian National Railways, city with Mr. Waring as acting manager.

The first game will be played in the 121st Street skating rink tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. Their opponents are the C.N.R. Shop Inter部隊.

The Telegraph team had a good work-out in the Arena in their usual working clothes and skated well this morning. Everyone showed up well and the game was a good run for their departmental line-up.

NEW GOAL GETTING RECORD SET IN EASTERN CIRCUIT

Stanley Jackson
Is Given Release
By Toronto Squad

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 15.—Stanley Jackson, the Nova Scotia hockey player, who has been subbing on the St. Patrick's National Hockey League club for three years, was released today.

The Eskimos arrived back in the city yesterday afternoon after a journey at Watskinash for over 24 hours and were not the worse for the experience. Manager Kenny McNeely and his coaching staff were all well satisfied with the showing made in Calgary, where the Eskimos' first goal was as pretty an effort as any ever seen. He thinks McNeely is one of the sensors of the game and that he has a good future ahead of him.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.—The new amateur rule of the Eastern Hockey Association, covering all activities of players, writers have been issued by the Eastern Hockey Association.

In the final period the Capitals had a battle on even terms and the tally stood 1-1 when they came out for the overtime period. The game was anything but consistently勾銷ed. Both teams showed in flashes, with Vancouver showing better punch to their attack and a defence which gave Reeks the nets, a good deal more protection than the Capitals' defense deserved to MacCusker.

REGINA, Sask., Dec. 15.—Frankie Patrick's Vancouver Maroons filled still higher the Regina cupboards tonight when they won the second period of the game, 14-12, and the Capitals were forced into a overtime period.

In the final period the Capitals had a battle on even terms and the tally stood 1-1 when they came out for the overtime period.

Saturday brought a change from the cold weather of the previous evening. The thermometer dropped over to 20° below zero.

It is estimated that ten inches of snow fell Saturday night and Monday morning. The thermometer registered 20° below zero on Monday morning, while the sun shone brightly.

It is hard to estimate the loss if any among the farmers and ranchers, but it can be said that the snow did not fall to the same depth as Monday night, with between forty and forty-five inches of snow lying on the ground.

No train arrived from Calgary Monday, while the trains from Edmonton and Drumheller were also canceled.

Cool trains were practically all up while all mines are experiencing a great deal of difficulty due to general cold stuff. It has every appearance of being quite a prima vid spod spell.

FOOTLIGHTS and FILMS

GORGEOUS NOVELTY REVUE. It takes a native of Spain or the Argentine to shake a real-mean hoof in the tango, so something extra will be expected from the distinguished show which company presents.

Dream Girl, Anton F. Sotyka effects this novelty, revue, as the theater, starting next Thursday. His company is headed by Anna Gruenwald, a specialist in the songs of Argentina, and includes other known performers, including Willard Brundage, Benoit Alberto, the International Argentinian, and several Argentine players who will be in the review of songs, music and dancing.

Actor and Dumbie, the added attractions, will present "As You Like It" and "Laughter As You Like It," that liver right up to its name. Actor and Dumbie, the added attractions, he makes a fine foil for his comedy act.

There are four other high-class acts on this week's bill. Virginia and Sophie, a comedy sketch that will draw many laughs from those who like the comic side of life; a team of comics, Williams and Young, will be seen in their first appearance; and the singing duo, Eddie and Bas Leader have a selection of symphonized and other popular songs.

The Zeldas Brothers open the bill with some of their unique and elusive aerial acrobatics of death.

The second chapter of "The Gitterer" is an added feature, the old favorite, George O'Hara, Alberta Vaughan, Al Cooks and 12th Guard are ever better than in their previous reviews. Heretofore, the night shows can be made now.

A DIFFERENT TALE. "The City That Never Sleeps," presented by the New York Opera Company, will be shown at the Capitol for the last time today. Adapted by Walter H. Miller from the novel by Leroy Scott's absorbing story, "Rooftop," it is a picture of James Cagney with a definite cast, photoplay has all the advance of being a motion picture de luxe.

Acting dealing with the cork life are not new, but this particular one is radically different from the ordinary.

"To begin with, the picture shows us the sharp contrast in New York between the rich and the poor. United States, as it is today on the last day of the year, asks the interesting question: Is the modern younger generation better off than the old? Are the young people who were brought up in the saloons? Here is food for argument!

And you can bet your bottom dollar that the picture will give every bit of entertainment the story deserves.

Louise Dresser, Virginia Lee Corbin, Kathryn Williams and Ricardo Cortez are the stars.

TWO STARS AT RIALTO. Two well-known stars are playing in "A Couple of Dumbies," the most popular show at the Rialto Theatre. Eddie Best plays the title through her first acting role, and Sophie, the girl who plays Peter Pan. Since then she has added to her popularity as England's most popular actress. She is an amateur scientist, and a member of the Royal Society of British Scientists.

The Long March. Mafusoff expedition of Philadelphia traveled up the Amazon River, up the "River of Doubt," and down the "River of Doubt," and into the jungles of Brazil. The trip took 11 months. It took 40 days, from Manaus, the last white settlement, to reach these jungles.

"White men probably have never been so far from civilization, and guide and interpreter to the expedition, was the most experienced.

Women like Slaves.

The beliefs and customs of this tribe are as primitive as savages in the jungle. They have no contact with white people, even in the most remote parts of the world.

We met two different tribes of Parintintins. The latter are the more warlike.

They battle continually between themselves and their enemy is a constant.

Then marriage views and social customs are as primitive as savages in the jungle. A boy as soon as he becomes 12 years of age must go hunting and fish. He must fight. Once he has done this, he may marry himself, he is allowed to choose his wife.

MARRY AT 10. The wife is usually a girl of 14 years old, and the husband is not yet 18. There isn't any ceremony, but the relatives hold a great party as soon as if there were a million ceremonies.

What happens is that the father of a little girl takes a liking to a boy, and the boy goes along to marry—say three or four days.

She gives her to the boy who takes her to his home, and the boy takes care of her. This continues until she becomes pregnant, and then the marriage is considered as completed.

Society, in one sense, is much alike in the United States and among the wild tribes of Brazil. The only difference is that the Indian woman is ashamed to change.

GEORGE WHITE. The death occurred yesterday of George White, of 1343½-57th Street, of Mrs. Pauline Walton, of 1343½-57th Street, on the eve of her 24th birthday. The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Andrew Brothers Mortuary in the Edmonton Cemetery.

Robert William Whitlow, of 1343½-57th Street, died Monday morning at 7 a.m. at the age of 40 years. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the Andrew Brothers Mortuary in the Edmonton Cemetery.
